Be A Child

Remember ... remember ... remember ...
You have never left home, my beloved
Listen to your heart, little one
Live in the Presence of your knowing
And remember ... remember ... remember

Be a child, be a child, find your dreams in the child
Bringing wonder to all that you do
All the angels will smile as they watch over you
Be yourself. Love your little child

Be a child, see the child, be a beautiful child
For you know what it's like to be free
All the music surrounds you, just feel it, and Be Little one, always be a child

Remember, remember, the place you call Home
Remember forever with all of your soul

Be a child, free the child, find your heart in the child
Bringing knowingness ancient and rare
You have always been beautiful, wondrous and fair
Your destiny is to be a child

Your Song of Love

Little child nestled in my arms
You are safe and warm
Little baby with all your charms
How I bless the day you were born
Little one with the shining eyes
You share the gifts you are bringing Little child keep on singing
Your song of love

Little child how I wanted you
And now you're here
Little one when I look at you
I hear music from the spheres
Little one with your knowing smile
You make ev'ry moment entrancing
All the angels are dancing
Your song of love

Little baby, you bring more joy
Than I've ever known
Little one when you sing your joy
You bring memories of home
Little on, if I'm feeling sad

Heartbeat

Listen to, your heartbeat
The answers lie within you
They're always true
Breathe into, your heartbeat
Feel all the love that's in you
In all you do

BRIDGE

Mother earth, will teach you to respect all living things
Father sky, will show you just what giving brings

Feel your own, heartbeat, heartbeat
All is known, inside of you

Swaying to, your heartbeat
The rhythm flows within you
And all is well
Breathe into, your heartbeat
The fire glows within you
Where Spirit dwells

BRIDGE

Touch the earth, her beating is the very heart of you
Hear the blowing wind, know it is a part of you

Feel your own heartbeat, heartbeat
All is known, inside of you

BRIDGE

Little child, just receive, you have all you'll ever need
Wind and fire, water, earth, join the call to claim your worth

Listen to, your heartbeat
The answers lie within you
It's here to guide you
Feel your own heartbeat, heartbeat
All is known, inside of you
All is known, inside of you
All is known, inside of you
Heartbeat, heartbeat, heartbeat ...

Mother's Home

Mother's home, my love, Mother's home little one
It's all right to soar, testing your wings
Reaching for more
Little one, I'm still here\Little one, have no fear
Little on, Mother's always home

Mother's home, believe, Mother's home, just receive
As you start to see love all around
It's only me
Mother's home, I Am Here
Mother's home, dry your tears
Little one, Mother's always home

Little one, A Am Here
Little one, dry your tears
Little one Mother's always home
Little one Mother's always home

The Song in your Heart

Give us the melody that sings in your soul
Give us the poetry that we long to know
The children will lead you to the song in your heart

Give us the secrets you carry inside
Give us the words you no longer can hide
Come out, we all need you and the song in your heart

Come out now, my love, you were born for creating Come out, my love, we are waiting

Give us the feelings you're keeping inside
Give us the tears that you're longing to cry
The angels are near you with a song for your heart
Give us the dance that you want to begin
Give us the laughter you're holding within
The world needs to hear you and the song in your heart

It's time now, my love, light beams surround you
Time now my love, we have found you

Take all the treasures you always have known
Give them to heaven and you'll bring us home Precious gems that you're bringing, you've had from the start
The gift is you singing the song in your heart

Follow Your Dream

My little baby, you are so wise
When I look at you I see the moonlight
Shining in your eyes
Where do you come from, I wonder where
Do you live in light beams from the morning star
Is it peaceful there

Follow your dream, my baby
Flowing along where spirit guides you
Taking you where your soul will find you
Stand free as you grow
Remember to live by the truth of what you know

My little angel, my radiant star
Miracle of mine, you're the perfect child
Just the way you are

Follow your dream, my baby
Flowing along where spirit guides you
Taking you where your soul will find you
Hold on to the beam of Love
And live in sunlight, bathing in the One Light
And follow, follow your dream

My Little Babe

My little babe, you are so bonny
And you are loved, dear child of mine
My little one, you are my only
Dear little babe, you are so fine

I look at you and I see starlight
And realms beyond the earthly sphere
You're bringing through such love and wonder
Message of peace for all to hear

All the world will need you, nurturing the earth
And your heart will lead you
Wondrous songs will immerse
Felt through all the universe

My wish for you is that you'll always
Be truthful to your hearts desire
And listen to music within you
Your voice will fill a heav'nly choir

Melodies within you are the soul of love
And the song that's in you
Mothering, coloring
Feeds us with the joy you bring

My little babe, while you are sleeping
I look into your lovely face
Your guardian angel is safely keeping
Each breath you take is bathed in grace

Give us All

Give us all of your vision little one
Let your soul rebirth
Give us all of your vision little one
And you will heal the earth

Give us all of your song, my little one
Like a lustrous pearl
Give us all of your song, my little one
And you will heal the world

Cradle Mother Earth, welcome her into your open arms

Give us all of your love, my little one
Let your heart unfurl
Give us all of your love, my little one
And you will heal the world

Give to someone else as you give to yourself

Give us all of your trust, my little one
Let your fears dispel
Give us all of your trust, my little one
And you will heal yourself

From your Wholeness, all the people will be healed

Give us all of your dance, my little one
Know your worth and stand tall
Give us all of your dance, my little one
And you will heal us all
You will heal us all

Sleep My Child, Sweet Sleep

Now the sky begins to fade
Stars peep through the growing shade
Soon to bathe in silvery light
As darkness brings the soft cool night

Little child, your head will rest
On bosoms warm, your brow caressed
Lulled by words of love and praise
Sung so softly, the lilting phrase

Now you sleep, a babe at rest
While in dreams your soul is blessed
All is love, my blessings keep
Sleep my child, sweet sleep

Little child, your head will rest
On bosoms warm, your brow caressed
Lulled by words of love and praise
Sung so softly, the lilting phrase

Now you sleep, a babe at rest
While in dreams your soul is blessed
All is love, my blessings keep
Sleep my child, sweet sleep

Quietly

Dearest child, born of Light
Listen to the song in your heart
For your song, dear one, is the song of Life Itself
It is the song which brings healing to all the earth
Your Song is your gift
Give it freely and Be Who You Are
And remember, quietly, quietly

Quietly, close your eyes, wish on the evening star
Quietly, know that I love everything you are Little baby, blessed child of Light
I will sing for you quietly through the night

Quietly, counting sheep, breathing so peacefully
Quietly, go to sleep, you are so dear to me
Feel the love now, lift up high to see
All the beautiful colors
Blending so quietly

Go inside quietly, peacefully still your mind
Know inside, quietly, listen to all you find
See the beauty, drift and fly to see
That your loved ones
Dream with you
Quietly
